

A Man's Great Honor and Duty

The Family is formed by God, knitted together by God, designed by God to be a life cornerstone. This cornerstones foundation is Christ, who teaches us love, forgiveness, patience, and grace. The Family is a team unit, the team prays, loves, forgives, protects, trusts, and hopes together. The family team is an immovable rock that shares the weight of life's burdens and serves as a humble podium for cause of celebration.

The man, the head of the family is called into great duty, his duty by Gods hand is to mature into a beacon of light that helps lead the family through future storms and into calm waters. The success of his journey will rest squarely on his intimate walk with Christ, his relationship with his wife and children, his commitment to sound judgment in all decisions. By doing so, he will be blessed with a lifetime of love, joy, peace, and respect.

Great Family teams are led with wisdom imparted by God, they impact their friends, neighbors, communities, and the world for the glory of God.

Robert Slattery

